

Walter Brown

May 9, 1936 - October 21, 2017

Walter S. Brown, 81, entered eternal rest on Oct. 21, 2017. He was born in Montezuma, Georgia on May 9, 1936 to the late Will and Lela Belle Brown. Walter retired from Montowese Rehabilitation Center after many years of dedicated service; which earned him the “Employee of the Year” award. Walter married the love of his life Roxie Brown in 1973, and they remained committed in marriage for 44 years until his passing. He was a faithful member of Morning Glory Pentecostal Church, where he took great joy in learning and reciting Bible verses. Walter is survived by his brother Solomon Brown; his children Joseph Cordy (Betsy), Julian Taylor (Kathy), Alice Taylor, and Jean Blackwell; 8 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; niece- Minister Vanessa Brown; and a host of loved ones. Walter was predeceased by his siblings Elizabeth Felton, Roscoe Brown, and Willie James Brown, Sr.

“ I struggled for a while to come up with the right words to describe what my uncle meant to me. I don't believe it can be put into words the feeling my Uncle Walter gave me every time I saw him. No matter what you were going through no matter your mood when he entered the room your heart could not help but be filled with joy. Uncle Walter was the epitome of the good person we all try to be. He loved us all and had faith in us even when we had none in ourselves. My uncle sent me a birthday card without fail every year as i grew up. He stopped doing so when i got older because i had become a man but still called me every birthday. I still looked forward to the cards and calls , grown man or not. To this day i still await that call every April 1st and hear "Heeeeeeeey young fella, HAPPY BIRTHDAY". I will anticipate getting thst call on that day the rest of my life till we see each other again. To you my Dear Uncle Walter i say , Rest easy young fella, i love you.
