“ I believe my uncle Dell is very proud of me and my family. He never showed me that he was displeased with me. His love and support has always helped me be a winner and he has always been my champ.

I thank Allah (God) for him and for permitting my uncle to introduce me to Islam which means peace. I know he wanted to share peace love and happiness with all of our family and friends. He loved and lived family Now we must do the same. I am learning this lesson day by day. For surely this is a COLD WORLD and it just got colder because my uncle dell had to go. But he is not dead, he is just out of your view. For a true and living spirit like him never dies!!!! I love you uncle Dell.

Hey Buddy Buddy!!!! Salute!
