“ My condolences to Aunt Mary and Family. Life as we know it has ended for The Great Craftsmen Wendell Todd. Death is a hard thing to bare for some. Time is different for all, so I won't say he died before his time. But just remember the good times we all shared with Wendell. I believe Wendell Todd soul is very much alive, free from the pain that we endure from being in this shell of a body. Wendell is free, his work here on earth is done. Great work!! His craftsmanship has touched so many homes and businesses. We can remember his talents and say well done!! Wendell you will be missed by us!

“ It's so sad to hear of Wendell's passing. He was a friend, coworker and fellow union member at Yale New Haven Hospital. We shared stories and had lots of laughs on and off the job. A joy to be around. A skilled craftsman, who on occasion would help me do some carpentry projects at my home. A young man who has left us much too soon.
My sincere condolences to his son and entire family. We will miss you Wendell. Rest In Power.
