

William Dimbo III

August 30, 1975 - December 22, 2018

William Dimbo III was born on August 30, 1975 to William Dimbo Jr. and Deborah Dimbo. He was born and raised in New Haven, CT. He attended Grant Elementary, Davis Street School, East Rock, and Wilbur Cross High School. From High School he enrolled in the Army Reserve where he served for 4 years.

In 1998, William became a Father for the first time. His son, William Alexzander Dimbo was his pride and joy. He was very active in his son's life since birth. Although Will was hoping for a daughter, even had a name picked out, (Alexis) he loved his son unconditionally. However, 6 years later, he got his daughter, Suleiris Alexis Dimbo. Whom he loved and spent time with equally. William loved his children and would do whatever he could for them. In 2006, he married Suleima, his daughter's Mother. Although the marriage didn't last, they remained good friends.

During his adult life, he was employed by Yale New Haven Hospital for nearly ten years. After leaving Yale, he worked at an automotive company until it closed down in 2017. William then enrolled in Porter and Chester in pursuit of his HVAC certification.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his Mother Deborah Dimbo, his Father William Dimbo Jr., his son, William Alexzander Dimbo, (Takima) his daughter, Suleiris Alexis Dimbo, (Suleima), a brother, Quintin Dimbo-Moore, a sister, Yolanda Adkins, and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and Friends.

Will was a huge sports fan and one of his favorite pass times was watching the Yankees with his Mother. He was also a Cowboys fan and predicted that they would go to the playoffs this year. But if you really wanted to get under his skin, all you had to ask him was how the Giants were doing and his response would be, "quit playing with my emotions".

William was known as Will or Dimbo to most was a man of little words, but had a big heart. He would literally give you the shirt off of his back. Dimbo was dependable, funny, and had a smile that would make you smile! He will truly be missed.

The Family would like to extend their gratitude for the out pour of love and support during their time of grief.

Don't cry for me today, I wouldn't want it this way. Be strong and smile, for you will see me in a while.

“ Will's gentleness and calm manner made it easy for anyone to love him. His smile and laugh spoke a thousand words. Your laugh made me laugh harder. We are 7 years apart but you understood me. You were a excellent listener. I will always have are childhood memories of The WWE, walking to McCorey's, UNO., and I declare war. You will always be in my thoughts. Love you cousin.Debra

“ Dear Sister Debbie:

We were so saddened to learn of the home-going of your beloved son, and extend deepest condolences to you and your family. It is never easy when our loved ones leave us. Our prayer is that God will give all of you the strength you need. May the Comforter wrap His arms around you, soothe your aching hearts and grant you strength and peace during this most difficult time.

In love, faith and prayer,
