“ Dad....Thank you for excepting me into the family. From day 1 I should have known what I was in for. You had so many good qualities I can't list them all. I will miss your teasing me and me coming back at you....then we both laughed. Your quotes." get up and go back to sleep#, calling me looking for "your secretary." I would come over to handle the issue! So many conversations an butting heads.

I will miss you my father, friend, advisor and repair man. There wasn't anything you couldn't handle and helping everyone who needed help. So many friends you were "The Man" Dad, definitely the man!!

I know you will be watching us all and keep us safe and somehow letting us know you have us.

Last, we have mom and will make sure she is takin care of. Most likely alot of people will be helping her to with things.

I love you and I will have a part of me missing but I know I will see you again. Until then Rest In Peace and behave! 😊 Love Always Marie.....🌷🌷💕💕
