“ Dear Bill,

*My tears are not for you.
My tears are all for those whose lives you touched.
They are for the emptiness in our hearts.
They are for the face we will miss.
For that laugh we will only hear in the fog of time.
They are for those quiet acts of kindness you didn't boast of.
They are for the good times and bad we shared.
And they are for that last visit we never got to share.*

They are for Bert, Momma Lu, and your children, and your brothers, and sisters, and aunts, and cousins, and friends who know you best, and who will miss you most. And for the little ones who will only know of you thru our remembrance.

*But my tears are not for you.
Because I know you decided that His Word is life and you received Life.*

My tears are not for you because there was fruit in the quiet ways you honored your Father, and He says that we shall know His children by the fruit they bear!

They are not for you because I know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

I know your eyes have seen and your ears have heard things that we cannot yet imagine.

I cannot cry for your home going, because I know that it is there that you are in perfect peace.

“ Bert Woody and I just heard about Bill and we send our condolences. May god bless and comfort you and the family. It has been a number years since we have talked but we think of you and our godson often. We moved to Maryland 6 years ago to be closer to our grandkids. Take care and we are praying you find peace in Jesus.
