

Willie O Miller

July 4, 1939 - October 3, 2019

Willie Oscar Miller was born in Camden, SC on July 4, 1939 to the late Oscar Miller Sr., and Ruth Horton Miller.

Willie was raised in Camden, South Carolina. He was educated in the Camden school system where he graduated from Jackson High School in 1959. He also graduated from Platt Technical School in Milford, for HVAC in 1981. Willie loved to work. In his time, he worked at Armstrong Rubber and Yale New Haven Hospital where he retired. He later went on to Saab Scania as a mechanic. He also worked at Pactiv Packaging; from there he began working for Securitas Security where he later retired.

Willie was a man who had love for his family and friends. Although he had few words, he always had kind words. His kind words to male family members where "How you doing ol'e geezer" this always made someone laugh. With endless memories he loved to work on his 1963 Green Mustang with his brother Oscar "Ozzie" Miller. He had a passion for cooking and was famous for his special seasoned fried chicken and pork chops. He also loved working in his yard.

On Thursday, October 3, 2019 the Lord called Willie home to the place he prepared for him. Willie leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 33 years, Marie Miller, who was the love of his life. His two sons; Gordon Miller Sr. of Texas, and Paul Crudup Jr. of West Haven, CT. Two daughters; Dana Miller of Georgia, and Sonya Jaudon (Patrick Sr.) of Hamden, CT. Two grandsons; Gordon Miller Jr. and Patrick Burroughs Jr. Four granddaughters; Jordan Powell, Taylor Powell, Dennia Miller, and Zhane Crudup. One great grandson; Cormaine Watkins. Sisters; Louise Warren of West Haven, Annie Barnes (William) of Florida, Rosa Person (Robert) of New York, and Alberta Moore of New Haven, and his special dog Victory.

Willie was predeceased by two brothers; James Horton, and Oscar "Ozzie" Miller Jr. One sister, Lela Mae Brown, and one brother in-law; John Moore. Also, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
