

Willie Hayward Miller

December 28, 1949 - September 22, 2017

Willie Hayward Miller departed this life on September 22, 2017 at Yale New Haven Hospital. He was born in Kingstree, South Carolina on December 28, 1949. He was the son of the late Dingle McKnight and Emma Jane Pearson-Miller. He was a loving dad, grandfather, great grandfather, great great grandfather, uncle and brother. He attended Cage Elementary High School in S.C and later worked for Capital Inventories of CT. He then worked as a store manager for Krausz's Food Store in West Haven, CT. He resided in Connecticut for many years. His hobbies included fishing, playing the wii, spades, solitaire and watching baseball (NY Yankees). He was our dad who fought until the end.

Brother Willie Miller was a member of Joy Temple, where he was a faithful and devoted brethren. He worked faithfully in Joy Temple Men's Department as well as supporting the Woman's ministry in their church mission. He was a very quiet person who was one of a kind, pleasant and got along with everyone. He would always go the extra mile if the need was requested. He will be greatly missed by his family and church family as no one will be able to fill his shoes. Willie touched the hearts of many with his generosity.

He leaves to cherish his memories, six daughters: Emma Miller, Martha(Harold) Singleton of New Haven, CT; Jettie Miller(Christopher Holland) of Meriden, CT; Ruthie Shaw of Waterbury, CT; LaTasha Witherspoon of Woodbridge,VA; four sons Kenneth Witherspoon, Roderick (Kale) Witherspoon, Willie Witherspoon of New Haven,CT; and Keith(Creshia) Miller of Waterbury,CT; 20 grandchildren, seven great grand children, and seven great great grandchildren, a special great nephew Darrell's McFadden; three best friends Charles Williams(CJ); Adegar Glover (Lee) and James Jones(Ro).
